The first session of the Youth Group's summer mission project was a success! On Wednesday, June 13, youth, parents and congregation members stayed after worship to help assemble these blankets for the Gillette Children's Hospital in St. Paul.

Through Thrivent action teams, we were able to purchase enough material to make 23 blankets. On June 13th, we set a goal of completing 7 of the 23 blankets. Thanks to everyone who stayed to help cut or tie! All 7 blankets were completed.

Our next session will be on Wed. July 11 at Waverly. Please join our youth after worship to help tie. If you can tie your shoes, you can tie blankets. Again, thank you to everyone who helped! These blankets will be going to children, teens, and young adults who are in need of some comfort while they are in the hospital.

What is Pastor Anthony wearing?

You may have noticed in the last couple of months that I have been wearing a cape or poncho like garment during worship. This poncho is called a chasuble. The chasuble is a traditional vestment worn by pastors who are presiding over the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

So why wear a chasuble? There are a couple different reasons why pastors use a chasuble. One reason to wear a chasuble is because of the seamless cloth that Jesus wore. In the Gospel of John, we read, "When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic (or robe); now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it.'" – John 19:23-24. Traditionally, the chasuble was made out of one seamless piece of cloth; symbolizing Christ.

Another reason to wear the chasuble is because Jesus is our host of this sacred meal. By putting a chasuble on, the garment reminds us that it is not the pastor who is serving us this meal of bread and wine, but it is Christ Himself. Not only is Jesus present in this meal through His body and His blood, but He is also the Host who prepares the meal and serves it to us. The chasuble, a seamless cloth, reminds us of the cloth that Jesus wore to the cross for us. This chasuble, then is worn by the pastor who presides over the Sacrament of Holy Communion so that we are reminded that it is not the pastor who is giving us some bread and wine. But rather, it is Jesus who is giving us His body and His blood.

Why a wardrobe change in the middle of worship? Because the structure of our worship leaders includes a Presiding Minister, an Assisting Minister, and a Preacher. The Presiding Minister is the one who leads the congregation in the Confession of Sins and Confession of Faith, as well as administering the Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion. The Assisting Minister leads the congregation in prayers and helps assist the Presiding Minister with the Sacraments. The Preacher is the one who delivers the Word of God to the people of God through the reading of Scripture and the preached Word. Now in small congregations where we don't have three ministers, the pastor fulfills all three of these roles at the same time. By placing the chasuble on after the sermon reminds us that the pastor is fulfilling different roles – first as the Preacher, and then as the Presiding Minister.

“Whispering Hope” - ‘this hope we have as an author of the soul, both sure and steadfast.’
Hebrews 6:19.

This hymn has a few surprises when you check the origin. Alice Hawthorne is listed as the author but it was actually written by Septimus Winner. He had written such outstanding songs such as ‘Where, Oh, Where Has my Little Dog Gone?’ and ‘Listen to the Mockingbird’. He was born into a very musical family, the seventh child, therefore he was named Septimus. He had shown great musical ability, interested early in learning the violin. After high school he and his brothers formed a musical publishing company. By the age of 20 he was running his own music shop. He was self-taught but he went on to teach violin, guitar and banjo and performed with several of the Philadelphia city bands and orchestras.

But, he got into deep trouble in 1862. President Abraham Lincoln had fired General G. B. McClellan for delaying an attack against the Confederate Army. Septimus was very upset - McClellan had been a very popular general. Septimus immediately published a song entitled, ‘Give Us Back Our Old Commander’, ‘Little Mac’, ‘The Peoples Pride’. It sold 80,000 copies immediately. So, he was arrested for treason, but he was released when he promised to destroy the remaining copies.

In his lifetime, he published over two hundred instructional books for more than 23 instruments and was inducted into the Songwriters Hall of Fame in 1970. “Whispering Hope” was the most popular hymn he ever wrote but as far as anyone knows, Alice Hawthorne was listed as the author.
